

SUBJECT: Military Police Corps Regiment Hall of Fame Nominations

1. It is with great pleasure that we solicit nominations for the US Army Military Police Corps Regimental Hall of Fame.
2. Commissioned Officers, Warrant Officers, Enlisted Soldiers, or Professional Civilians who have served with or supported an active or reserve component Military Police unit are eligible for nomination. Nominees must have departed service with the US Government for at least two complete years prior to consideration. A Nominee must have contributed significantly to the evolution and enhancement of the mission, doctrine, training, or lineage and heritage of the Military Police Corps. Nominations for heroic action may also be submitted. Nominations must be based on genuine, personal knowledge or research by the nominator.
3. Nomination packets must include the full name and official rank or grade of the nominee; a career biography, to include key assignments and accomplishments that warrant induction into the hall of fame; a narrative justification specifically citing key accomplishments and the impact of those accomplishments on the Army and the Military Police Corps; current address and phone number for the nominee or a surviving family member; the nominee's social security number or serial number; and an 8 x 10 color or B&W photograph of the nominee.
4. Anyone may nominate an individual for induction into the Hall of Fame. Nominations should be forwarded to the Chief of Military Police, US Army Military Police School, ATSSJS, 401 MANSCEN Loop, Suite 1058, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri 65473-8926, NLT 29 April 2012
5. All eligible nominations will be considered for induction during three successive years following submission. Additional supporting material for the nomination may be submitted at any time during that period. At the conclusion of the three years, the nomination packet will be retired to the Historian's office if the nominee has not been approved for induction by that time. Waiver Authority for any aspect of the Hall of Fame selection process belongs solely to the Commandant. Those nominees who are selected will be inducted during a ceremony in celebration of the Military Police Corps 71st Anniversary in September 2012 at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.
6. Detailed information regarding the Hall of Fame is contained in US Army Military Police Corps Regimental Regulation 870-1, DTD 21 September 2011.
7. Message and Regulation 870-1 will be posted on the US Army Military Police Corps Regiment Website at <http://www.wood.army.mil/usamps/>.
